JOHN PERCEVAL, earl of Egmont, was born at Weſtminſter, on February 24, 1711, and after a learned education at home, and a further improvement by viſiting foreign countries, was choſen in 1731 (though then under age) a burgeſs for Dingley; and on December 31, 1741, unanimouſly elected repreſentative for the city of Weſtminſter; as he was in 1747 for Weobly in Herefordſhire. In March, 1747, he was appointed one of the lords of the bedchamber to Frederick, late prince of Wales, in which ſtation he continued till the death of that prince. On April 17th, 1754, he was elected a member at the choice of the laſt parliament for the borough of Bridgwater, in the county of Somerſet; and on January 9, 1755, being ſworn one of the lords of his majeſty's moſt honourable privy-council (in Great Britain) then took his place at that board accordingly. He was likewiſe appointed one of the privy-council upon the acceſſion of his preſent majeſty to the throne; and was again elected to the laſt parliament in April, 1761, for the borough of Ilcheſter, in the county of Somerſet, and likewiſe the next day re-choſen for the ſaid borough of Bridgwater, water, for which place he made his election. On May 7, 1762, his lordſhip was called up to the houſe of peers in Great Britain, by the title of lord Lovel and Holland, of Enmore, in the county of Somerſet (two of thoſe Baronies as before obſerved, which were forfeited by attainder of Francis, viſcount Lovel, in the firſt of Henry VII.) in regard to his relation (as well by conſanguinity as deſcent, both by the male and female line, as above deduced, from that branch of this noble family) and took his ſeat in the houſe of lords accordingly, on the 10th of May then next enſuing. On November 27, 1762, the king was pleaſed to appoint him one of the poſtmaſters-general, in the room of the earl of Beſborough. Reſigning which employment on September 10, 1763, his lordſhip was on the ſame day appointed firſt commiſſioner for executing the office of lord high admiral of the kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, and of the dominions, iſlands and territories thereto belonging, which office he alſo reſigned in September 1766. On February 15, 1736-7, he married the lady Catharine Cecil, 2d daughter to James, late earl of Saliſbury (by the lady Ann Tufton, 2d daughter and coheir to Thomas, earl of Thanet, by the lady Catharine Cavendiſh, daughter and coheir to Henry Duke of Newcaſtle.) Her ladyſhip died at Charlton, Kent, on Auguſt 16, 1752, aged 33 years and 10 days, days, and was buried there, having had iſſue five ſons and two daughters, viz. 1ſt. John-James, lord viſcount Perceval, born in Pall-Mall, Weſtminſter, January 23, 1737-8. His lordſhip in 1760 was appointed a captain of dragoons in lord Robert Sutton's regiment of royal forreſters; and in April, 1762, was promoted to a company, with the rank of lieutenant-colonel, in the firſt regiment of guards, and ſerved in the allied army, in Germany, under prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick, during that campaign. On May 4, 1762, his lordſhip was choſen member in the preſent parliament for Bridgwater, in the room of the earl of Egmont, his father, when called up to the houſe of peers, in England. And on Tueſday, June 4, 1765, his lordſhip was married at his father's houſe, in the admiralty, to the hon. miſs Iſabella Powlet, daughter and ſole heir to the right hon. lord Naſſau Powlet (third ſon of Charles, duke of Bolton, Baron St. John of Baſing, &c. &c. who died January 21, 1722) by his wife, the lady Iſabella Tufton, one of the daughters and coheirs of Thomas, late earl of Thanet, baron of Clifford, Weſtmoreland, and Veſey (by the lady Catharine Cavendiſh, daughter and coheir of Henry, duke of Newcaſtle) ſon of John, earl of Thanet, by the lady Margaret Sackville, daughter and heir of Richard earl of Dorſet (by Anne, daughter and ſole heir of George Clifford, earl of Cumberland.)

Cumberland.) Of which baronies of Clifford, Weſtmoreland, and Veſey (being all baronies in fee) it may be proper to obſerve, that by the death of the ſaid Thomas, earl of Thanet, without male iſſue, they fell into obeyance, between the five daughters and coheirs of the ſaid earl, viz. Catharine, who married Lord Sondes, father to the late earl of Rockingham.—Anne, who married James, late earl of Saliſbury, and by whom ſhe had Catharine, late counteſs of Egmont, mother to John, now lord viſcount Perceval.——Margaret, counteſs dowager of Leiceſter, now living (who obtained of the late king the barony of Clifford, which, having no iſſue, will fall back again into obeyance after her deceaſe).——Mary, who married the late marquis of Harold, ſon and heir apparent of Henry, duke of Kent (by whom ſhe had no iſſue,) and afterwards became the wife of John, late earl Gower, whoſe widow ſhe now remains.—And Iſabella, mother, as before-mentioned, of Iſabella, now lady Perceval, who therefore has a joint claim in preſent to the two baronies of Weſtmoreland and Veſey, and (after the ſaid counteſs of Leiceſter) to the barony of Clifford alſo.——It is likewiſe not improper further to obſerve, that in caſe of failure of iſſue in Henry, now duke of Bolton, the ſaid Iſabella, lady Perceval, will be entitled to the barony of St. John of Baſing, in fee, together with the great eſtate, which is ſettled to deſcend for ever to the heir of that noble family, under a perpetual entail, by an act of parliament, 27 Hen. VIII.

2d, Cecil-Parker Perceval, born in Pall-Mall, Oct. 19, 1739, who died at Eaton ſchool, March 4, 1753.

3d, Philip-Tufton Perceval, born in Pall-Mall March 10, 1741-2, who having entered early into the ſea ſervice, ſerved during all the late war abroad; was at the ſiege and ſurrender of Quebec, and at the taking of Martinique, and was lately captain of the Ramilies, a third rate man of war, and is now captain of one of his Majeſty's yatchs.

4th, Edward Perceval, born in Pall-Mall April 19, 1744, being an enſign of the firſt regiment of foot guards, ſerved as aid-de-camp to general Hodgſon at the taking of Belleiſle; was employed abroad again in the ſame ſtation with the earl of Albemarle, in the late expedition to the Weſt Indies, at the ſiege of the Havannah, and is now captain of a troop in the fourth regiment of dragoon-guards, commanded by ——.

5th, Frederick-Auguſtus Perceval, born Feb. 11, 1749-50, who died Jan. 21, 1757.
